THE "SUNSHINE MAIDS" PLEASE BIG CROWDS

Clever Dancing and Good Music
Mark Billy Riddle's Troupe at the Odeon.

Billy Riddle and his "Sunshine Maids" opened a week's engagement at the Odeon theater to three packed houses, and the opinion of all who attended the performances is that it is a splendid show. Taking it from start to finish it is a carnival of singing, dancing and comedy, with a bevy of pretty girls who can really sing and dance.

The two comedians, Billy Riddle and Jay Hollis, are far above the ordinary and deliver their songs and witty sayings in a manner that brings forth rounds of applause and laughter.

Ready Duran, the "straight man," is full of pep and ginger and as the umpire helps to get many a hearty laugh.

Miss Virgie Rhyme sings "Wrap Me in a Bundle," Miss Violet Mansfield "Cotton Ball," and Miss Douglas "Baseball Rag," and all deserve special mention for their sweet singing and dainty dancing. Those who failed to see "Follies of the Day" yesterday should see it today. Wednesday will bring forth a new bill entitled "The Troubles of a Bell Boy."

There are three splendid reels of pictures on for today, a Selig Jungle Zoo picture entitled "Orang Outang," a pretty Irish drama, "A Sprig of Shamrock," and the latest Hearst-Selig News Pictorial.

Maude Adams will begin her tour in October with a repertoire, including "What Every Woman Knows," "Quality Street," "The Little Minister," "The Legend of Leonora," and "The Ladies' Shakespeare."

A beautiful picture is being shown at the Orpheum theater today. The La Badie club, which sprang into existence among the followers of "The Million Dollar Mystery," have been revived into wholesome activity by the announcement that open his season in "Grumpy" in New York where he will play for four weeks, then go on tour. George Arliss, who arrived in the same steamer, is to appear in a new play.

"The Tigress," a three-act Broadway Star feature is at the top of the Bijou program today. The confession of a woman known as "The Tigress" reveals the hiding place of stolen jewels and explains the mysterious disappearance of a child. Absolutely without fear, strong as a man and the wife of a master crook, "The Tigress" steals the child of a wealthy man and lavishes upon it all the wealth of mother love in her ferocious nature. It is a strong emotional play, and keeps spectators in their seats to the end. Miss Gordon is supported by New York's Ned Finley, Paul Logan and Eleanor Woodruff. Ada's fable, "The Roster of Blades," and "The Daily News" complete the program.

Wednesday, the great four act Edison masterpiece, "June Friday," will be the big attraction at the Bijou. Miss Gertrude McCoy, Duncan McRae, Robert Connors, Gus Phillips and Robert Bower are in the cast. It is an emotional drama and strong in its appealing power. A two-part Klaw and Erlanger, a "Ham" comedy and a Hearst-Selig News Pictorial will also be shown.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" a spectacular moving play, designed to show the evil effects of unpreparedness, is being presented in New York. It is by Commodore J. Start Blackton. Charles Richman playing the hero. It shows with many thrilling scenes New York shelled and captured by a foreign enemy.

The great emotional star, Madame Olga Petrova, is seen in "The Vampire," is seen in "The Vampire." The explanation of the use of the title, "The Vampire," is well shown in this photoplay by Mme. Petrova in the title role, when a good woman once deceived, whose aim in life is hereafter to make all men her victims. But love entering into her

SHE SAVES SIX LIVES AT WRECKING CRANE

SCENE FROM "THE BROKEN RAIL"

Have you ever seen a railroad wrecking crew at work? This is one of the sides of railroad work which is seldom seen by the average person and for that reason Kalem's stirring episode of the Hazards of Helen railroad series, "The Broken Rail," is of decided interest. This production will be shown at local theaters in the near future. As the result of a telegrapher's carelessness, a freight train is wrecked. Helen, attached to the wrecking force, accompanies the wreckers to the scene and the work of clearing the debris away commences. The sight of the crane lifting huge cars and swinging them out of the way just as easily as a man would handle a match box, is simply awe inspiring. Incidentally, Helen's daring saves six lives when the engine of the crane is overcome by steam. See this photoplay!

HOWE LONDON SHOW HAS BIG MENAGERIE

Interesting Sight Will Be a Be-reaved Mother Monkey Nursing Puppy.

There are many rare wild and domesticated beasts in the menagerie of the Howe great London show which will exhibit here on Friday, September 24. Naturally the hundreds who patronize the show are pleased with what they see, but it matters not how rare the animal may be, there is nothing that furnishes to old and young alike so much pleasure as the many monkeys in their large and spacious home. Giraffes, hippopotamuses, rhinoceroses, giant camels and even the extremely hydrochored may for a time hold their attention, but not as long as will the cage full of monkeys. There is always something new about their antics and they seem to know they are the "whole thing" when it comes to being attractive. There is nothing so near human as a monkey mother with her babe. Every move and every attention bestowed upon her offspring is just as near that of a human mother as can be.

Sometime ago with this show a monkey mother lost her little baby and was grieving herself to death. She refused to eat and could not in any way be comforted until the keeper one day introduced a small puppy dog to the cage full of monkeys. Almost immediately the mother who had lost her monkey baby adopted the little dog and has mothered him ever since, watching over him as carefully as she would her own little baby. She carries him around in her arms whenever she climbs to the perches, and when he is playing around in the cage she watches and sees that no harm befalls him. Should the monkey when playing hide and seek with the puppy hide where it is difficult for him to find her, he will cry just as if being neglected, and the mother monkey will spring from her concealment, pick him up in her arms and cuddle him to her with true motherly affection. She does not mourn for her dead baby since she has adopted the puppy dog.

WEST VIRGINIA PREPARING FOR W. & J. GAME

Big Game Will Be Played at Morgantown on October Second.

MORGANTOWN, Sept. 14.—The university athletic committee held a meeting here recently and spent several hours disposing of the content of routine matters largely connected with the coming football season. Student Member Winters was the only board member not present.

Arrangements for the first and perhaps the biggest game of the season—that with Washington and Jefferson on October 2—were completed by the board and an extensive advertising campaign for the contest outlined. It is believed that the largest crowd of the season will witness this contest.

The board fixed the price of admission for the game at $1 and for reserved seats at $1.50. This is an unusually large price for admission to a game here but because of the exceedingly large guarantee which must be paid, the committee felt justified in setting the admission at these prices. The exact amount of the guarantee, it is understood, is $1,000 and at such an early date in the season, the management is confronted with no small task in paying out on the game.

The board also went over the training camp expense account and it is said that the venture this year will come out on the right side of the ledger. The two baseball games on the athletic field for the benefit of the camp expenses helped materially towards making it an even break financially.

Attorney S. G. Jackson, of Clarksville, and Attorney J. C. Richardson, of Fairmont, alumni members of the board, arrived here Saturday afternoon in time to see the varsity teams scrimmage on the athletic field and expressed themselves as well pleased with the material on hand.

The basketball schedule for the coming winter was also before the board but inasmuch as it is not fully completed no action was taken. The schedule contains three trips, one to Virginia, one down the Ohio river and one to Pittsburg.

METHODISTS WILL PLAY FIRST GAMES OF SEASON AT HOME

Waynesburg College Will Be Opening Attraction and Will Be Met September 25.

BUCKHANNON, Sept. 14.—Within three weeks of the opening of the season, Wesleyan will have three games at home and all will be difficult. For the first Saturday of the season, September 25, Waynesburg college will prove the attraction. Waynesburg will this year be coached by an old Wesleyan player and one of the best known athletes ever turned out at Wesleyan—A. I. Garrett, of Fairmont. Garrett graduated at Fairmont normal before coming to Wesleyan in 1912 and after staying at Wesleyan two years and starring in football, basketball and track work he went to Western Maryland where he also shone for one year in all branches of sport. Garrett writes friends here that the prospects are exceptionally good for Waynesburg and that he expects the Methodists to work for all they get.

The second Saturday, October 2 the team is at Lynchburg, Va., playing Washington and Lee, but on the next week-end, October 9, she will again play at Buckhannon, this time against a strong rival for honors in the mountain state—Bethany college. Bethany will be coached by E. H. Tarr who formerly was assistant coach at Carlisle and late was coach for a part of a season at Davis-Elkins, but had to leave on account of illness before the season started. Local people all realize that if Rodgers is again at Bethany this team will be a factor in the state championship and no pains will be spared by the local coaches to have Wesleyan in the best of shape. The following Saturday the biggest game of the season at home will be played with Catholic university from Washington, D. C. This team's schedule is regularly made up of Maryland Aggies, Dickinson, Western Maryland, Boston college, St. John's and other strong eastern teams and will give Wesleyan a hard tussle. Preceding this game Weston high school and the Wesleyan reserves will stage their annual game. Last year they played preceding the Dickinson game and the "scrubs" won 14-0. Weston, however, was minus two of its stars and this year expects to even up.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local physicians they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by construction of a new and complete hearing system. The deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear, or "catarrh," hearing and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. The cases out of the ear are caused by catarrh, which is not a local condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give you One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, sent for circulars, free.
